IN 80—LS 6143/DI 102+

(d) The governor shall issue a proclamation annually setting apart and designating November 11 as Veterans' Day. The governor in the proclamation shall:

(1) recommend that all places of business, other than school corporations and places of business necessary to the immediate health and welfare of the citizens of the state, remain closed in commemoration of Veterans' Day; and

(2) proclaim that Veterans' Day be observed generally throughout the state as a day on which to hold appropriate exercises in commemoration of the historical events associated with the day.

~~(b)~~ (e) School corporations shall observe Veterans' Day each year with appropriate exercises in commemoration of the historical events associated with the day. If classes are not conducted on November 11, the school corporation shall conduct these exercises on the first day after November 11 on which classes are conducted.

(f) If:

(1) an employer does not close for business in commemoration of Veterans' Day as set forth in subsection (d)(1); and

(2) an employee who is an honorably discharged veteran notifies the employer not later than October 28 of the employee's intent to be absent from employment on Veterans' Day in the same year;

the employer shall grant the employee an excused absence from employment on Veterans' Day.

(g) If the conditions in subsection (f) are met, an employer may not discipline the employee for failure to report for employment. Disciplinary sanctions prohibited under this subsection include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Loss of pay (other than the loss of salary or wages that may have been earned if the employee had worked on Veterans' Day).

(2) Substitution of vacation time, time paid for illness, or free time for the missed employment.

(3) Substitution of compensatory time earned through past or future employment with the employer for the missed employment.

(4) A notation of the employee's absence on Veterans' Day placed in the employee's personnel files that may be considered during future disciplinary action.

The employer is not required to pay the employee for work not performed on Veterans' Day.

(h) An employer who:
